Schools Gather Again

For the new school year, the Northfield School for Girls and Mount Hermon school for boys have opened their door for 505 girls and 500 boys. Classes were called the week of September 16 and President Dr. William E. Park has greeted the student bodies. This year there are students from Chile, France, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Bermuda, Puerto Rico, Guatemala, England, Iran and Greece.

Dr. Howard L. Rubenham, headmaster at Mount Hermon announces seven new faculty members. Rev. Albert B. Buchanan, chaplain and head of the Bible Department, graduate of Oberlin and Union Seminary, who served as chaplain with the army and liaison officer with the U. S. and British military governments in the Rhineland, and who was pastor of the Manhasset Congregational Church and director of religious education at Cadman Memorial Church, Brooklyn, before entering the service; Dr. Edmond S. Meany, Jr., head of the history department, who has published numerous articles in historical journals and was head of the history department at the Hill School before entering the navy where he served as educational and historical officer of the Ninth Naval District; Chester G. Seamans, language department, formerly a teacher at the Kingswood School, Nichols School and Brookline High School and field director with the Red Cross in the Pacific; Jervis W. Burdick, Jr., mathematics department, former Hermon master, who has returned to the campus after serving as an officer in the navy; Howard P. Baker, history and Bible department, Hermon alumnus and graduate of Oberlin College, who recently was discharged from the navy; Harry W. Snow, mathematics, formerly head of the mathematics department at St. Johnsbury Academy before serving as head of the military department of the naval ROTC and V-12 unit at Columbia University and assistant professor of naval science and tactics, and Donald H. Westin, science department, former member of the faculty at Millbrook School before entering the naval air corps where he served as a fighter pilot.

At Northfield School for Girls Miss Mira B. Wilson, principal, announced the appointment of Bradford W. Newcomb as a member of the English department. He has been dean of boys at Pleasant Hill Academy as well as teacher at Southern Union College in Alabama and at Perkins Institute in Watertown. Other appointments include Dr. Else R. Simmel, formerly associated with the work of the New York National Tuberculosis Association and resident physician of the Country Sanatorium, Bedford Hills, N. Y.; Miss Olive Horn and Miss N. Y.; Miss Olive Horn, former teacher in Pennsylvania schools, and Miss Roberta Biery, formerly with

The Fortnightly

The program for the coming season of the Fortnightly Women's Club has been announced and the printed folder will soon be in the hands of every member. The program committee, which consists of Mrs. Joseph W. Reeves, chairman; Rev. Hazel Rodgers Gredler, Mrs. George H. Sheldon, Mrs. Harvey Jack, Mrs. Robert McCastline, and Mrs. George M. Ball concluded their work several weeks ago with the result that a most promising series of events will be heralded.

The first meeting of the Fortnightly will be held in Alexander Hall at 3 o'clock Friday, October 4, with Mrs. Grace Mitchell as guest speaker on "Pigtails to Permanents." The tea hostesses will be Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mrs. Mary Callaghan, Mrs. Domenic de Amicis and Mrs. Cleland Cochran. The following meeting will be on Friday, October 18, at Alexander Hall when Mrs. Arthur N. Ball, of the Northampton State Hospital, will present "Facts and Fallacies of Mental Hospitals." The club has about 150 member and is growing, and Mrs. William E. Park is the president.

Mrs. Mitchell, the guest speaker, comes from Winter Hill and is an authority on comb making and hair styles. Her talk will be illustrated by pictures of 100 years of hair style. Members who have any pins or pieces of hair jewelry are asked to bring them. At a meeting of the executive board at the home of Mrs. Park on September 5, 19 new members were voted into the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Maydole have closed their summer cottage in Mountain Park and returned to their home in Red Bank, N. J.

Miss Pauline Moor who is with the Perkins Institute at Watertown spent her recent vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lena Moor, on Birnam Road.

Rev. Helen Bassett, of the Free Methodist Church, has returned from a vacation spent with relatives and families in New Jersey and New York states.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Coburn who have been at their summer place here in Mountain Park this year are leaving this week for their home in Orlando, Fla., to spend the winter.

the Military Intelligence Division in Washington, D. C., in the language department; Miss Mary Elizabeth Durfee, former instructor at Bates College, as a member of the physical education department; Miss Emma Mueller, former lieutenant in the WAVES, mathematics; Miss Joan Poindexter, also a lieutenant in the WAVES, science; Sarah S. Schellens, free lance illustrator of children's books, art department; Mrs. Bradford Newcomb, former religious department head at Colby Jr. College, Bible; Mrs. Lucy L. Morgester, formerly with the New York Hospital, as one of the resident nurses, and Mrs. Mabel N. Bennett, of Amherst, as head of West Gould Hall.

Temporary relief for the problem of expansion

That's the story in the telephone business the next few months

We're now well under way with a huge construction program, which will eventually bring New England the quantity and quality of telephone service that it wants. This is a big job—a long term job—calling for the expenditure of $200,000,000 on new telephones, plant, switchboards and dial equipment in the next five years.

But for now, with material shortages delaying our long term plans, we're adopting, wherever practical, various temporary measures to enable us to meet a growing demand with the equipment now available.

Most central offices are filled to capacity. That is why, in some communities, service is not always as good as either you, or we, would like it. It is also why, at present, we are unable to provide service for additional customers in many of our exchanges.

But thousands of telephone men are now at work on the hundreds of projects called for by New England's expanding needs. Community by community, as new equipment is manufactured and installed, New England will be getting more telephones and better service.

To those who eagerly await

Here Is the Latest News about Chevrolet Deliveries

Everybody from factory to dealer is doing everything that can be done to speed deliveries to you

We have been informed by the Chevrolet Motor Division that the past month has witnessed only a slight improvement in the rate of production of new Chevrolet passenger cars. As a result, shipments of new cars to dealers for delivery are still far below the level we and the factory had hoped to attain by this time. In fact, through August, Chevrolet's output of cars in 1946 was only 22.6% of the number turned out during the corresponding period of 1941.

We know that Chevrolet is doing everything possible to step up its production totals—to ship more and more cars to us and to its thousands of other dealers throughout America... and we know, too, that we are assured of getting our full proportionate share of the current output and of future production gains.

Disappointing as the total figures have been—and despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of the year—it is nevertheless true that Chevrolet led all other manufacturers in production of passenger cars during June 1946, and has continued to maintain its lead in total production from that day to this.

We shall continue to make deliveries of new Chevrolets to our customers just as fast as we receive them; we regret delays as deeply as you do; we thank you for your friendly patience and understanding; and we promise you a new high motoring experience when you take delivery of your new Chevrolet, giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Keep Your Present Car Alive

Meanwhile, may we suggest that you safeguard your transportation by bringing your car to us for service now and at regular intervals. Let us help you to keep it in good running condition—to maintain its performance, appearance and resale value—until the day when your new Chevrolet comes along.
